No boundaries

To reach this guiding vision, Holland Bloorview's strategy for the next five years is to focus on three high impact areas – discover for action, personalize pathways and connect the system.

In all of these areas, Holland Bloorview will take an integrated approach to research, teaching and care.

We will drive all of our work by leading and modeling social change; mobilizing people and teams; co-creating with children, youth, families and alumni; and evolving client-centred quality and safety.
